SUMMARY

I believe the simplest solution is usually the best, a work environment where people help people is not only in my own best interest but everyone else's interest as well, and giving up on something successful or not learning from mistakes is the only real failure. It is important to get to the task as Martin Luther King, Jr. once said, 'How soon not now becomes never.' If I'm going to do something I'm going to do it the best I can.

Life is a gift and the only appropriate response is gratefulness. I try not to take things for granted. Also, if Peter Griffin and Jonah Hill had a baby it would look exactly like me. So I've got that going for me too.
